

ABSORPTIVE TYPE SILENCER

Intended for high frequency applications. Functions by absorbing noise into the acoustic packing lining the flow path. A variety of acoustic pack materials are available, typically:

- fiberglass
- polyester
- s/s or copper scrubble
- mineral wools

This silencer design functions with low-pressure drops, the performance is a function of absorptive material types, packing thickness and density, packed length and internal design.

Typical Performance

